Congressman Mark Kirk says Administration forcing residents of Illinois to accept “unnecessary risk” without a vote, public hearing or detailed plan

WASHINGTON— On November 20th, members of the Illinois congressional delegation asked detailed questions about the Administration’s plan to bring al Qaeda detainees from Guantanamo Bay to Illinois. Nearly one month later, we are still waiting for answers. Without a vote, public hearing or detailed plan, the Administration is moving quickly to force the citizens of Illinois to accept this unnecessary risk. The citizens of Illinois deserve better.
